

Benefiting
Children's Hospital Colorado

In-kind donation guidelines

To help you find the right items to donate, please keep in mind:

- Items must be brand-new and in their original packaging. We cannot accept used items, due to infection control guidelines.
- We cannot accept:
 - Toys that depict violence, such as guns or swords, NERF™ guns or figurines armed with weapons
 - Games that are rated "M" or movies that are rated "R"
 - Crocheted or hand-knitted items
 - Food products
 - Potted plants
 - Latex balloons

Children's Colorado's wish list

Needs and wish lists vary by location, but we're always looking for the items below.

For babies and toddlers

- Toys, including light-up, interactive and musical toys, and infant mobiles
- Music and activity boxes that attach to cribs
- Board books, including books in Spanish and recordable or interactive books
- Rattles and teethingers
- Clothing (0 to 18 months)

For older children

- Sensory toys, such as wand spinners and stress balls
- Art supplies, such as paint, paintbrushes, colored pencils, markers, crayons, pastels, artists' charcoal, sketch pads, play dough, modeling clay, coloring books, bead kits and craft kits
- Stuffed animals
- Lego®, Duplo® and Mega Bloks® (all sizes and skill levels)
- Medical play kits
- "Thank you, heroes" medical action figures
- Dry-erase boards and markers
- Play-doh or similar putty

Benefiting
Children's Hospital Colorado

- NERF™ basketball hoops
- Books, including Spanish books and “search and find” books
- Journals
- Magnetic building tiles
- Mini cars and track sets
- Nintendo Switch™ gaming systems and games
- Mario Kart Live: Home Circuit
- Sphero Bolt
- Ring Fit Adventure
- Gift cards in any amount, including Amazon, Target, Wal-Mart, Visa and Netflix
- Playing cards, Uno, Phase 10, Skip-Bo
- Bluetooth earbuds, headphones and speakers